

Is there line dancing at The Palisades
this week?

You won't need to ask that question any more if you join our e-mail list!

It's very easy to do:

1. Send a blank e-mail to:
palisadeslinedancers-subscribe@yahoogroups.com
2. After about 10 minutes, you will get an e-mail back from yahoo asking you to confirm your desire to subscribe. Simply reply to the email you receive from yahoo. Just leave the reply blank and send it. You will be added to the list.
3. You may need to set your spam filters to allow messages from this list to reach your in-box. Usually, adding the e-mail address palisadeslinedancers-owner@yahoogroups.com to your contacts list/address book is sufficient.

The Fine Print:

- This list will be very low traffic, one or occasionally two messages per week.
- We will not be posting jokes, photos, videos, ads, or anything off-topic to the list.
- We will have to personally approve all messages sent out to the people on the list, so you will not get spam on this list.
- I have set the membership list to private so it will not be accessible to anyone but Ben & Jeremy.
- We will not sell or share your email address with anyone else.
- You DO NOT NEED A YAHOO ID to join the list!!!!
- If you have a yahoo ID, you may join the group/list using your ID and the instructions in part 1 of the email you receive.

- If you have problems joining, please e-mail mountainboyzdjs@yahoo.com for help.
